Dear Parents, Families, and Youth:

I am pleased to present the Boston Centers for Youth & Families Summer Guide 2013 filled with dozens of neighborhood-based and citywide summer day camps and programs for Boston's young people. Summer is a great time for our youth to take their learning beyond the classroom, explore their interests, learn a new sport or do hands-on science activities - a time to make new friends and form lasting memories. It is also a time to take field trips to take advantage of the wealth of fun, cultural and historical museums, parks, and other sites across our beautiful city. BCYF programs keep children's minds and bodies active over the summer months so they are prepared for the return to school in the fall. Summer is an exciting time in Boston and, in addition to what BCYF offers, you can find out about summer programs offered by other City departments and private non-profits by going to www.cityofboston.gov/youthzone or calling 617-635-KIDS. Take advantage of all that Boston has to offer and have a wonderful summer!

Sincerely,

Thomas M. Menino
Mayor of Boston

Dear Parents, Families, and Youth:

The program guide in your hands is a ticket to a safe and enriching summer of learning and fun. Across every neighborhood of Boston, BCYF community centers offer a rich menu of summer opportunities for young people and their families, from summer camps and swimming pools, to sports programs, community cookouts, free drop-in enrichment activities, summer jobs, and more. BCYF programs are designed to support healthy youth development and extend their learning through the summer months with activities that challenge and engage youth, building on their natural energy, curiosity, and creativity.

As the largest youth and human service agency in Boston, BCYF serves over 14,000 youth each summer through enrolled summer camps and programs, and thousands more attend drop-in programs, special events and activities. For your convenience a list of centers with contact information is noted on the previous page. Due to the early print deadline of this guide, we encourage you to contact BCYF centers directly for specific program and registration information.

We look forward to serving you and your family this summer!

Sincerely,

Daphne Griffin
